

I am very much in favor of the Telephone Privacy Act. In fact, I wish it were stricter. I have registered and am still being bothered by what I would call telemarketers.... they are organizations wanting donations, but I would really rather NOT have them calling me.